DAY 06 [B/-/D] PAMUKKALE - KUSADASI

Breakfast at the hotel, We will visit the ancient Hierapolis and Cotton Castle, a true natural wonder, a giant waterfall, stalactites and natural pools. The name "Hierapolis" is derived from Greek and means "sacred city", referring to the numerous temples and religious sites that existed in the city. One of the most notable aspects of Hierapolis was its famous theater, which had a capacity to seat thousands of spectators and is still largely preserved today. The city gained recognition as a popular spa and healing destination due to its natural hot springs and white chalk pools. These waters, laden with minerals, created impressive natural terraces and waterfalls known as "Pamukkale", which in Turkish means "cotton castle". Pamukkale and Hierapolis are together on the UNESCO World Heritage list due to their historical importance and natural beauty. Pamukkale is famous for textile products as well beside on cultural beauties. Have a time for experience different textile products at Textile Store. Time to leave from Pamukkale, drive to visit House of Virgin Mary. House of the Virgin Mary, believed to be the final residence of the Virgin Mary, mother of Jesus, according to Catholic tradition. The house was discovered in the 19th century by following the descriptions in the reported visions of Blessed Anne Catherine Emmerich (1774–1824), a Roman Catholic nun and visionary, which were published as a book by Clemens Brentano after her death. While the Catholic Church has never pronounced in favour or against the authenticity of the house, the site has nevertheless received a steady flow of pilgrimage since its discovery. Anne Catherine Emmerich was beatified by Pope John Paul II on October 3, 2004. Then, we have possibility to visit magnificent Ephesus Ancient City + lunch service (optional). It was built in the 10th century BC on the site of Apasa, the former Arzawan capital.[5][6] by Attic and Ionian Greeks. During the Classical Greek era, it was one of twelve cities that were members of the Ionian League. The city came under the control of the Roman Republic in 129 BC. After that, drive to Kuşadası Hotel for rest & accommodation.

DAY 07 [B/-/D] KUŞADASI

Whichever choice you make, the day promises relaxation, exploration, and the chance to immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of local and regional cultures. Then, back to hotel for dinner & accommodation.

DAY 08 [B/-/D] KUSADASI - CANAKKALE

Departure from hotel after breakfast and move to magnificent city Canakkale. We will visit to Troy Ancient City. Troy or Ilium was an ancient city located in present-day Hisarlık, Turkey. The place was first settled around 3600 BC and grew into a small fortified city around 3000 BC. During its four thousand years of existence, Troy was repeatedly destroyed and rebuilt. As a result, the archeological site that has been left, is divided into nine layers, each corresponding to a city built on the ruins of the previous. Archaeologists refer to these layers using Roman numerals. Among the early layers, Troy II is notable for its wealth and imposing architecture. During the Late Bronze Age, Troy was called Wilusa and was a vassal of the Hittite Empire. The final layers (Troy VIII-IX) were Greek and Roman cities which in their days served as tourist attractions and religious centers because of their link to mythic tradition. Then, transfer to hotel for dinner accommodation.

Depart for a panoramic excursion in one of the oldest areas of the city where we will see the Roman Aqueduct, whose construction was completed under the reign of the Roman Emperor Valens in the year 368. We will continue to appreciate the Walls of Constantinople, which remind us of the times when they were seen as invincible, limiting entry by land and sea to the so-called "Eis-tin Poli/ or Inner City", possibly hence the name Istanbul. After arrive to old city area firstly visit Blue Mosque & Hipodrome. Take time to admire the intricate architecture, including the impressive domes and minarets. After visiting the Blue Mosque, head to Hagia Sophia for photostop, located just a short walk away. Learn about the fascinating history and significance of Hagia Sophia from your knowledgeable HARMONY Travel guide. After Hagia Sophia, make your way to outside photostop at Topkapı Palace. Topkapı Palace, located in the historic district of Istanbul, Turkey, is an architectural marvel that served as the primary residence and administrative headquarters of the Ottoman sultans for nearly 400 years. Its exterior is as impressive as its interior, showcasing a blend of architectural styles that reflect the grandeur and opulence of the Ottoman Empire. Also we can make combination visit with Topkapı Palace, Hagia Sofia entrances + Grand Bazar visit ( optional ) + lunch. Before you leave the old city area visit Spice Market for shopping. The Spice Market, also known as the Egyptian Bazaar (Mısır Çarşısı in Turkish), is one of Istanbul's oldest and most famous covered markets, renowned for its vibrant atmosphere, exotic aromas, and colorful array of spices, herbs, and traditional Turkish delicacies. Then we will have Bosphorus Tour (optional) boat to discover one of the most beautiful view of world. Now transfer to hotel for rest and accommodation.
